1. Clark Dennis, collector for the year 1843, for said county, do hereby certify that the foregoing list contains a true statement of lands and towns, lot and acreage, upon which taxes for the years therein specified are due and unpaid, the names of the owners thereof, the amount of tax, interest, and costs due thereon, under the amount and years for which the same are due; and that I am unable, in my capacity, to find any personal property belonging to the owners or owners of said lands and lots or any of the persons liable to levy, of value sufficient to pay the said taxes and costs, or any part thereof; and public notice is hereby given that I shall apply to the Circuit Court of Brown county, at the next term thereof to be held at Mr. Sterling, on the second Monday of April, A. D. 1816, for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction of said taxes, interest, and cost. Notice is also given that, on the 5th day of May, A. D. 1816, at 10 o'clock, A. M., the said order shall be pronounced in said court, and for the sale of which said order shall be made, will be required for public sale at the court house in Brown county, for the amount of said taxes, interest and costs due thereon.

Given under my hand and seal, this 23d day of February, 1816. CLARK DENNIS, Collector of Brown County, Illinois.

H. Sylvester Emmons, editor and publisher of the "Herald and Gazette," do hereby certify that above list of lands, and other real-estate, situated in the County of Brown, and State of Illinois, on which the term due and unpaid for the years 1844 and 1845, was published in the "Beardstown Gazette," a weekly news paper, published at Beardstown, Clinton County, Illinois, the 27th day of February, 1846; and that the number of transcripts correspond with the number of papers distributed for that week; and also that I have compared with the laws of the State in the distribution of papers.

I further certify that the above list was carefully compared with the original, and was found to be correct, and the number of transcripts and town lots accurately correspond, and that the original list was literally followed in this publication.

SYLVESTER RAMON

Beardstown, February 27th, 1846.

CONGRESSIONAL.—The Senate, on the 11th, resumed the consideration of Mr. Adams's Oration, in relation to that gentleman made a lengthy and impressive argument in support of his measure. He asserted that giving notice, in the form he proposed, would lead to his union with Great Britain; that it required all her strength to support her colonial system; and, that she dared not to quarrel with us. Nor had we reason to fear a war with her. He said that our statements, in discussion of questions of national policy, should not indulge in comparisons of the relative power and impotence of the governments. He denied that the application of steam had increased the available strength of the British compared the strength and resources of the two countries and again asserted that England dared not go to war not that she lacked courage, but on account of her menso losses which she knew the most serious Britain flict with this country. The commerce of Great Britain would be much the most seriously injured, she would kill her North American population, and this the at part of her cost. He held that, if we chose to clare war to-morrow, we could put more navies on than England could, that all the nations of the could not muster strong enough to subdue this con-England could attempt to procure European medi-advantage to set up an independent nation in Ore-but would not go to war for her interest there.

On the 12th, Mr. Crittenden moved the amend-

180 which he some time since had submitted, as a substitute 181 for the resolutions reported by the Committee on Foreign 182 Affairs, whereupon Mr. J. M. Clayton spoke somewhat 183 length in its favor. He would state the substantial 184 cause it gave the President discretionary power 185 in the original resolutions did not. The President 186 believed no war, as he had given no intimation of 187 recommending a measure of defence. Looking 188 at the decrees issued from the War Department 189 and the President's message, he could see no indication 190 of war. Mr. C. rebuked Mr. Clifford for the offensive 191 message that gentlemen were to make use of towards every

The House, having dispatched the first Oregon bill, now paying some attention to other business of course which has accumulated greatly. In a few days, however, the bill organising a territorial government for Oregon will be reported, when the public peace and tranquillity will again suffer. Having become somewhat unpopular, small wonder if they keep the game up.

OUR GAZETTE.

S. EMMONS, - - - - - EDITOR.
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1846.

A heavy snow fell last Friday, since when the weather has been extremely cold. The river is frozen over and no arrivals of boats for near a week.

The anniversary of Washington's birthday was celebrated in this place on Monday last by the Marston, with a procession, an oration, and a dinner; and by the citizens with a ball in the evening.

The State Temperance Convention met on Monday, at Springfield. One hundred and twenty delegates were in attendance. The inclement weather, no doubt, prevented a large number from attending. The proceedings were highly interesting, and sixty new members were added to the society. A full account may be expected from the delegates, at the meeting in the court-house, to-morrow evening.

FENOSA CONVENTION.—The County School Association will meet at Virginia on the first Saturday in March. The trustees of schools, teachers, friends of education and the citizens generally, are respectfully invited to attend. A statistical account of the schools in Cass county, compared with the systems and condition of schools in old districts, will be submitted to the convention. The importance of this subject, and, as we learn from the report of the schools

We learn by the Sangamon Journal, that Gen. J. J. Hardin has declared being considered a candidate for nomination to represent this district in Congress. At present we hear none other spoken of for that honor but A. Lincoln, Esq., of Sangamon.

G. T. 33, Davis, who is at Washington City, says, that Mr. Hoge, of Galeton, made the address speech in Congress, for giving notice to Great Britain to terminate the joint occupancy of Oregon, that has been made the present session. Mr. Hoge is a gentleman of superior talent, and it returned in Congress will meet superlatively his more favored colleagues. Just to the Senate, the discussion is going on, and much anxiety is felt to see and hear the speeches of the "able men" of that body, upon a question so exciting. The rumors that negotiations have been continued, since the correspondence submitted to Congress by the President, is held as a favorable omen of the peaceable settlement of the difficulty. It is, however, more than probable that Mr. Pakenham is not authorized to close the negotiation.

NEWS FROM ENGLAND.—The steamship Massachusetts is now fully de-livered, and we may expect advances two weeks later from England by every mail.—Several packet vessels were also due at New York at our last dates.

NEGOTIATIONS.—The report of a renewal of negotiations between Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Pickens, was current at Washington and all the Atlantic cities on the 11th and 12th. Later dates throw some doubts upon its correctness.

Since our last issue we have had no thing from Washington that indicates clearly the progress of negotiation or hostilities upon the Oregon question.

upon their basis of the forty-ninth parallel, but it is confidently expected that he will receive such authority from his government in a short time.

The steamer Marachollett was expected daily at Boston; at the latest dates, and by her we may hear further of the opinions of ministers in England, in relation to the Oregon boundary question. The opinion in this country appears to be gaining ground that no war could grow out of the controversy. European interests in travesty. The Columbus of both nations, and the sound, practical sense of the experienced statesmen, on both sides of the Atlantic, will, we trust, be sufficient to avert the alternative of war, upon a question which can evidently be settled with the greatest ease, and with satisfaction to the people of both countries, if the demon of discord is not allowed to influence the councils of the two nations.

COMMUNICATING IS MESSIAHISM by the name of James H. Strang, claims to be the son of Joe Smith. Strang says he has found new platers, and he is manufacturing new revelations. No doubt, it is the spirit. Many fresh zeal and enthusiastic members are leaving Nauvoo to go to the stand of Strang. prophet. John Page, one of the best, has seceded from the and opposes emigration; he is a Brigham Young and his men as weepers and ungodly and such means many of the will endeavor to retain a test in this country; the denunciations of brother is like Salom rebel. The best of them are not fit for a christian land, and the few that are not worthy a dwelling place here would be tolerable.

—The test vote in the Representatives may be taken on the adoption of Mr. Tilden's substitute, which afterwards will come before the House. The yeas and nays were 122, yeas 12, nays 40. Of these ten were from Virginia, six from North Carolina, five from South Carolina, two from Alabama, two from Maryland, three from Georgia, one from Florida, one from Mississippi, one from Louisiana, seven from Massachusetts, and one from New York, one from land, one from Ohio, one from Pennsylvania, one from Indiana, and one from Jersey. Thirty-one were from holding States, and fifteen from non-holding States. Twenty-six Whigs, and twenty Democrats.

to his Government, to procure 19th parallel as the boundary between the two countries, with the privilege of waiving the Columbian; but he will not, I presume, any exercise to this Government of such a character, until he avers himself that it is likely to succeed."

The informant is most interested that she carries out despatches for the British Government from Mr. Wm. M. Bartley, the British consul, being a member of that firm.

Mr. Slidell's Reception.—Although we have already given the substance of the intelligence from Mexico, let us by the U. S. brig Scamers, the leading article from the Washington Union, of Tuesday night, the 10th, be found interesting: letters were received last night in city, by special conveyance from Mexico, from Mr. Coss. The letters the city of Mexico are to the 14th century, at which time Mr. Slidell was in the city, but was expected to arrive about the 17th. He had no objection to that place. Not the slightest insult had been offered him, as has been reported; but he had received with much courtesy and had been welcomed in the city of the metropolis in an elegant and accomplished gentleman. He had not been received by the gov-ment in his official capacity—accepting that he declined his exception, infact, judging by appearances, there is no reason to believe that he would be as acceptable to the government of Paredes as to that of Herrero.

the pretended miracle performed by the painting of the Madonna in the Cathedral of that town, in opening and moving his eyes. He expresses an opinion that the severance of M. Ronge from the Romish Church in Germany, is not a foreboding of what will inevitably occur in Italy on a large scale, on the first occasion. "The mass of the population in Italy," he says, "is now restlessly travelling for two equally extreme points, with imbecility anything cessive corruption of the Church, new rapidly is no longer Catholic, but Roman."

Marine and Fire Insurance.
THE Cincinnati General Agency of the Protection Insurance Company, at Hartford, Ct., has established a subordinate agency at Nashville, Indiana, with authority to issue fire and marine policies.

The agent will promptly attend to all applications within twenty-five miles of Nashville, and will visit distant places, when necessary. By a circular just received, he is assured that the loss of this company, by the late fire at New York, is moderate, and will not interfere with the regular course of its business, nor affect the security of those who insure with it.

The great value of these pills and bitters in all of human every variety of disease, by their ability to regulate the stomach, has made them famous in all latitudes and in all parts of the world.
Their established reputation has long been a trial of time and of scientific experiment. They are the only pills that are known to keep the bowels in a healthy condition. They are the only pills that they have been alleged in their preparation. They are pure, a vegetable preparation, and they are the only pills that will cure all the ailments of the bowels, by

They are able to displace in their constitution, and absorb, much more thoroughly, acting rapidly upon the secretions, carrying off all poisonous humors; assimilating with and purifying the blood, manufacturing new life and vigor into the system by restoring the consumptive, purifying and by equalizing circulation, so essential to sound, cheerful, classic health.

No inconvenience of any sort attends their solemnization, nor is any expense of rubrication or of other requisites from daily because of, or otherwise required. It is only necessary to be particular in taking care according to the directions, and the priest will assuredly beget in the only sense of discipline, and of the sacredness of the sacrament, and will personally be edified. throughout the entire world. In fact, most of the people of the world are in one of two classes, and are consequently of indisputable and conclusive evidence. The first is in persons who will probably be found more exactly similar to him. They also establish the fact that these excellent and truly useful medicines have been fully tested, successful and approved by fully respectable and kind members of the medical faculty, being physicians and not only teachers, but also of the highest quality and practice. The second is in the little class of the Western and other nations, and physicians, who have chosen to make public the benefit of their fellow men the happy results that invariably attended the judicious use of Mead's life medicine.
